2019 ~ Funding Submission Process

Anishinaabe principles remain the guide by which the Rainy River First Nations Trust operates. As per the Mission Statement, the Trust will continue to provide financial assistance for projects that enhance services, increase opportunities and empowers the lives of membership.

Submission deadlines for projects/business plans in excess of $2,500 will continue to be based on a seasonal process, occurring each quarter of the calendar year.

Individual support in developing a submission is available to Members by contacting the Trust office.
